

- New K1ck Halo Division

Moving on to different challenges and games, we have started a new division, this time on Halo. Starting with great expectations, we all hope that this new division will extend the reach of K1ck Clan even further.

kRoNic, our UK Halo Division spokesman, states that “I’m looking forward to being a part of K1ck. We can become the biggest and best Halo clan u can get and then continue into Halo2 with continued support.”

The new Division is filled up with former players from eKings, with a good background in the Halo scene.
